Walking Tour of the French Quarter and Lunch
Hotel Side Door Shuttle Pickup - Street Level

Registration is required. Group will leave from Hilton Hotel and ride the Riverfront Streetcar to Jackson Square. Lunch will be on your own at Café Maspero’s (cash only). Historic sites visited on the tour include:

The Cabildo
The site of the Louisiana Purchase Transfer and the flagship building of the Louisiana State Museum historical museum complex, the Cabildo was constructed in 1795-99 as the seat of the Spanish municipal government in New Orleans. The name of the governing body who met there was the “Illustrious Cabildo.”

The Presbytère
The Presbytère, originally called the Casa Curial (Ecclesiastical House), derives its name from the fact that it was built on the site of the residence, or presbytere, of the Capuchin monks. It was designed in 1791 to match The Cabildo.

The 1850 House
The Upper and Lower Pontalba Building, which line the St. Ann and St. Peter Street sides of Jackson Square, were built in 1850 by the Baroness Micaela Almonester de Pontalba. To illustrate the landmark’s historical significance, the State Museum has re-created what one of the residences would have looked like during the antebellum era when the Baroness Pontalba first opened her doors.

Café du Monde
The original Café du Monde coffee stand was established in 1862 in the New Orleans French Market. It is a traditional coffee shop. The coffee is served black or au lait, meaning it is mixed half and half with hot milk. Beignets are square French style doughnuts, lavishly covered with powdered sugar.

Bourbon Street
Bourbon Street, lined with bars, jazz clubs, hotels, restaurants and boutiques is the best known party street in New Orleans.

The French Quarter
The French Quarter, also known as Vieux Carré, is the oldest and most famous neighborhood in New Orleans. Many of the buildings were constructed before New Orleans became part of the United States.
