

LOUISIANA LTAP
LOCAL TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Year in Review

July 2024 to June 2025

48 classes
& conferences

Class topics included roadway preservation, equipment operation, and work zone safety to construction inspection, chainsaw operation, successful supervision, and local road safety planning.

1,532 attendees

Approximately 85% of participants hailed from local parishes and municipalities.

8,936 contact hours

Among the most in-demand offerings, the Chainsaw Safety classes led in total training hours, followed by Common Sense Approach to Safety and Heavy Equipment sessions.

4.76/5 average
rating

Feedback remained overwhelmingly positive, with participants rating courses an average of 4.76 out of 5, underscoring the value and relevance of the training content.

Looking Ahead

LTAP is expanding its technical course offerings and piloting new classes on time management and organization, practical conflict management, and effective communication.